Comprehension Open-ended

Read the passage below and answer questions 39 to 42. Your answers must be based on the passage.

Sam and his brother, Bill, were catching insects near their campsite when they saw a cave at the top of the hill that they were on. Curious, they scrambled up its steep sides and came to a small, dark entrance. Fearlessly, Sam stepped inside but he was not able to see anything in the cave.

Wanting to see what was in the cave, the two boys hurried back to their campsite to get a torch each. With great caution, they entered the cave. There was a strong odour of rotting wood. Sam sneezed noisily several times, much to the amusement of Bill who was not as sensitive to its smell. Soon, they came across some steps inside the cave and began to climb them. 5

Bill, who had been talking incessantly all this while, suddenly went quiet. He stared, mouth agape, at something on the ground ahead of them. It was a half-burnt candle. "Look, we're not the first ones here!" he said enthusiastically. Hearts beating like bongo drums, the two boys continued walking. Was anyone still in the cave? Their question was soon answered by the sound of someone singing. 10 15
