A few months into the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, food charity Willing started receiving more requests for its food distribution service. In respon	nse, its volunteers the level of production in its kitchen at Chai Chee, [packing about 11,000 meals, compared with the 7,000 before the pandemic.
Today, the charity is able toup to approximately 15,000	0 meals a day the opening of its new soup kitchen in Joo Chiat. The	he new kitchen is three times bigger the charity's previous premises Chee. It includes new equipment that will help Willing Hearts boost its meal production In addition, the new premises is expected to serve as a(15)	for homeless beneficiaries from August this year. Willing Hearts founder Tony Ta	y, who the charity in his home kitchen in 2003, said, "During the pan	idemic, we saw more requests from residents, we decided to step	up our efforts to help them. It is the desire the volunteers to reach	out to more people that has helped us move into the new space, and I am thank	oful for support in making this happen."
The kitchen is managed by a team of about 200 volunteers and	t runs the year. It produces a nutritious spread with about a tonne	of rice cooked daily. Mr Tay is grateful that the charity, receives suppo	rt from sponsors for its groceries, been able to continue providing of	ooked food to its beneficiaries the rising raw material cost in recent m	onths.
Besides providing food and shelter, Mr Tay is hopeful the charity will fin	d new of helping the community. He said, "I hope that the number of p	people requesting for our help will go down. That would mean compared to	now, people are facing hardships. We hope that day will come soon	n."
